

Workshop on Politics and Economics Theory and Evidence

Date: 5 July 2014 (Sat)

Venue: Room 443 (South building), Mita campus, Keio University
2-15-45, Mita, Minato-ku, Tokyo 108-8345, JAPAN

Sponsored by: Nomura Foundation, Kikawada Foundation, KAKENHI

Organized by: Institute of Economic Research, Keio University

10:00-10:10 Opening remarks

[10:10-12:00] Session 1

Chair: Toshihiro Ihori (University of Tokyo)

Amihai Glazer (University of California, Irvine)

Insufficient Experimentation

(joint with Kimiko Terai)

Ryo Ishida (Policy Research Institute, Ministry of Finance)

Does an Optimal Voluntary Approach Flexibly and Efficiently Control Emissions from Heterogeneous Firms?

(joint with Takuro Miyamoto)

12:00-13:00 Lunch (The Cafeteria, 4th floor, South building)

[13:00-15:00] Session 2

Chair: Amihai Glazer (University of California, Irvine)

Yasushi Asako (Waseda University)

Ballots for War or Peace: The Effects of Violence on Political Elections

Shuhei Kurizaki (Waseda University)

TBA

15:00-15:30 Coffee break

[15:30-17:10] Session 3

Chair: Nobuo Akai (Osaka University)

Taiki Susa (Nagoya University)

Strategic Delegation in Asymmetric Tax Competition
(joint with Hikaru Ogawa)

Michihito Ando (Uppsala University)
Identifying the Effects of Grants on Local Policies in the Presence of Grant Endogeneity and Grant Effect Heterogeneity

17:10-17:20 Break

[17:20-18:20] Session 3

Chair: Hikaru Ogawa (Nagoya University)

Tetsuya Matsubayashi (Osaka University)
Does the Business Cycle Affect Voter Turnout?

18:20-18:30 Closing remarks

19:00 Dinner : Hibiya Bar, Mita.